

POLITICI DE PRODUCȚIE ȘI DE PERSONAL ÎN CADRUL UNEI SOCIETĂȚI PRODUCĂTOARE DE CABLAJE ELECTRICE (1)

PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PRODUCTION IN A COMPANY PRODUCING ELECTRICAL WIRING (1)

Șef lucr.ing.dr., ec. Ancuța BĂLTEANU
Universitatea din Pitești

Abstract: Abstract: The theme aims to provide production and personnel policies applied by a company that makes electrical wiring, in order to satisfy the order made by a client. The company recommended that confidentiality regarding the name and location and target customer. Adapting to customer requirements of production activity is closely related to planning staffing for this activity. Theme is structured in five papers. The first paper - this one - is essential elements connected with electrical wiring in the company studied, from customer requirements, describing the phases of the production process and production operations. Information obtained in the first paper is the second paper in three premises for the calculation of working time for each production activity, the total working time for production operations and the operator norm. In the third paper will determine staffing needs and workstations involved in production, and the last two papers will address the recruitment, selection, hiring, integration, training and evaluating staff involved in the production of electrical wiring of the company studied .

Keywords: production process, electrical wiring, cutting, assembly.